

WRIGLEYS
— SOLICITORS —

Farms & Estates

Wrigleys advises well over 100 landed estates,
as well as many farmers and other landowners,
on a very diverse range of matters

Asset Protection, Tax Planning & Succession

With our extensive, combined knowledge and experience in trust, tax, property and agricultural law, we work with clients to protect, preserve, and where possible enhance, family owned farms, estates and landholdings for current and future generations. We combine our extensive technical and legal expertise with practical and commercial considerations to guide clients in the implementation of their priorities.

Land & Rural Business

Wrigleys' experienced team of agricultural solicitors work closely within the wider Tax and Estate Planning and Property Teams to advise on all rural property related matters including the strategic considerations of buying, selling, leasing and land management activities, including in-hand farming and diversification.

Experience

Wrigleys' Farms & Estates team numbers over 30 partners and solicitors across the private client and property departments. The team is led by individuals ranked in the top tier of the main legal directories, Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners.

Professional contacts

Wrigleys has excellent relationships with other professionals specialising in advising farmers and landowners. Our network helps us to work proactively for clients, identify opportunities and bring our extensive experience to bear.

"Very good private client lawyers, especially for landed estates, where they have a tremendous depth of expertise and experience"

"They have common sense, coupled with excellent legal skills and experience"
