- Extra support when you need it, including projects & interim HR

EMPLOYMENT LAW SERVICES

The Wrigleys employment team is nationally and internationally regarded providing high quality employment law advice to its client base.

The team acts for a wide range of charities and social enterprises (many of whom are household names), educational institutions, such as universities, colleges, schools and academies, and other organisations across the public, voluntary and private sectors.

We are a market leader in executive employment issues, discrimination and equal pay claims, restructuring and redundancy, and highly sensitive and high value employment problems.

Wrigleys is the “go to” firm for TUPE advice and is a national centre of excellence on the subject.

Our advice is definitive, yet practical. Our approach is both strategic and solutions focused.

“From my experience, they have been very responsive, flexible and pragmatic, which has in turn helped us to manage our costs effectively.”

Chambers & Partners feedback on Wrigleys

“Outstanding.”

Legal 500 feedback on Chris Billington

“Sue King is a highly skilled and competent Employment Law Partner. She is an exemplar of the unique features of the firm. There is a real sense of thoroughness to the work she produces. Time is taken to consider a range of options and the best solution is reached in a collaborative way with the client. With any employment law matters she would be my solicitor of choice.”
