

TRUSTEE TRAINING FOR CHARITIES

Trustee training is crucial for charities to demonstrate effective governance.

It helps to ensure that trustees have a clear understanding of their legal obligations, roles and responsibilities, and regulatory expectations.

— SOLICITORS —

Whether you are seeking introductory training for new trustees, a governance refresher for your wider board or an in-depth analysis of key issues at a bespoke session, Wrigleys can offer an option to support you. We recognise the time and financial constraints on trustee boards, and have designed training options to suit different budgets.

Wrigleys is a specialist law firm with a dedicated charities and social economy team who advise many hundreds of charities and organisations in the voluntary, community and social enterprise sectors. Many of the lawyers at Wrigleys are themselves trustees, volunteers and/or governors of not-for-profit organisations, giving them first hand practical experience of many issues on which they might be advising.

ADVANTAGES OF TRUSTEE TRAINING:

- Enables trustees to discuss their trustee duties.
- Demonstrates a charity's commitment to supporting its trustees.
- Promotes compliance with the SORP requirement to report on trustee training.
- Helps new and existing trustees to better understand their role.
